Addendum to Publication Agreement

(Version to be used to amend publication contract for which German law does not apply - 28.06.2011)

1. This Addendum modifies and supplements the attached Publication Agreement concerning the following work:

Title: ______________________________________________________________________________

Journal: ____________________________________________________________________________

2. The parties to the Publication Agreement are:

Corresponding author: ________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________

Publisher: __________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________

3. The parties agree that wherever there is any conflict between this Addendum and the Publication Agreement, the provisions of this Addendum are paramount and the Publication Agreement shall be construed accordingly.

4. Notwithstanding any terms in the Publication Agreement to the contrary, the author retains the following rights:

- to use all or part of the content of the work in future works of the author, including lectures, textbooks, reviews and articles and press releases provided proper notice of the publisher's copyright is given;

- to reuse any portion of the work, without fee, in future works of the author's own, including books, lectures and presentations in all media, provided that the publisher's citation and notice of the copyright are included;

- to include the work in a thesis or dissertation;

- to deposit an electronic copy of the published version (if permitted by the publication agreement) or the final manuscript (after peer review) accepted for publication in an institutional and/or subject-based repository at the moment of publication.

- to provide free of charge access to this electronic copy to anyone through this repository:

  □ immediately if the scientific publication is published "open access", i.e. if an electronic version is also available free of charge via the publisher, or □ within [6] [12] months of publication.

5. For record keeping purposes, the author requests that the publisher sign a copy of this Addendum and return it to the author. However, if the publisher publishes the article in the journal or in any other form without signing a copy of this Addendum, such publication manifests the publisher's assent to the terms of this Addendum.

Instructions to authors for use of an author addendum

(These instructions are not part of the addendum and do not need to be sent to the publishing house.)

1. Complete fields:
   - Title
   - Journal
   - Corresponding author
   - Publisher

2. Tick the appropriate box
   - [ ] immediately .... [open access journal]
   - [ ] within [6] [12] months of publication. [toll access journal]
     Please also indicate what embargo period is to apply when ticking the box for toll access journal.

4. Add a note to the publication contract indicating that an addendum has been attached, e.g. "subject to attached amendment", and staple the addendum to the publication contract before returning it to the publisher

5. Archive a copy of the signed and amended contract and addendum for your own reference.

6. In case the publication contract is concluded electronically, e.g. by ticking a box when submitting an article, consider sending an email indicating that the contract is subject to an amendment sent separately. Print out the contract and send with the addendum as described in step 4.

7. To help assess the success of MPG authors using the addendum, we would appreciate it very much if you would also follow these additional steps:
   - Please email or fax the addendum to the library at your institute.
     This will allow MPS to gather aggregated data about use.
     Data about individual uses will not be shared.
   - If you would like support when a publisher asks questions or raises objections about the amendment:
     ask at your institute's library or contact MPS' Open Access Team.
   - Thank you very much for your cooperation!
